

PMT Announces Photo Contest Winners

Winner Rick Otto

Rupert, ID – Project Mutual Telephone (PMT) awarded $250 to Rick Otto of Twin Falls for his winning photo submissions for the PMT 2009-2010 phonebook cover contest. Otto’s winning shot of the Twin Sisters Statue will be on the cover of the Twin Falls book. The Mini-Cassia phonebook will feature Independence Lake, shot by PMT employee Craig Gates.

Winner Craig Gates

This was the first photo contest that PMT has held for their phonebook covers. The contest ran from January 15 – February 28. “We have so much talent in our communities that we wanted to feature that on our phonebook covers,” says PMT President, Charlie Creason. “This was such a great success it will become an annual event. We received over 1100 photos entries from around the Magic Valley. We thank everybody that participated and made this such a great success.”

The 2009-2010 phonebooks featuring the winning photos will be available early this fall.

About PMT

PMT is a full service communication company providing local telephone and its associated features, including long distance and voicemail, cellular service, cable TV, IPTV, internet, wireless internet, DSL, directory publishing and computer networking, service and repair for home and office. Headquartered in Rupert, Idaho, PMT has been serving the Magic Valley since 1916. PMT serves 12,000 member customers and has offices in Rupert, Burley and Twin Falls, ID. For more information, see www.pmt.org.